WHY IRISH RULE BOSTON.

CONSERVATIVE VIEWS OF JUSTICE AND ORDERLY GOVERNMENT.

Some Things Which a Free Ireland Might Learn from the Puritan Element—Why the Irish Are the Proponents of Culture and Why Native-Born Citizens Favor a Home Rule—A Retort of Professor Goldwin Smith.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 29. The recent publication of statements which have appeared from time to time in the Irish papers, and which attempted to create a great deal of attention in this city and vicinity, and the effect of the visit of Mr. Parnell, the "Irish Leader," to this city, have caused many quiet but serious commenting upon the Irish question, especially concerning what has been said regarding and attributed to the action of Boston citizens. Some expressions have been made to call upon the [illegible] present, by [illegible] and [illegible] which [illegible] for the [illegible] on this subject, and for evidently that action [illegible] to [illegible] on a subject not yet understood to have taken [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] sentiment, and to show, [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] of the [illegible] of Independence, although [illegible] to [illegible] street, principally [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a new street, and was [illegible] [illegible] from the narrow [illegible] of Independence, although [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
